

“HERE AT RICE, WE VALUE OUR RELATIONS WITH STUDENTS, STAFF, FACULTY, AND VISITORS ALIKE.”

GENERAL PUBLIC

We ask you to acquaint yourself with the rules and regulations of Rice University and the laws governing our community.

- 15 minute stops are permitted with hazards on between Herring and Sewell Hall, and Herzstein Hall and the Jones School. Stops and 15 minute parking are to be used for 15 minutes or less.
- Loop Road is one-way, counterclockwise, from the Gymnasium to Cohen House, and from Founder's court to Alice Pratt Brown Hall. The Mudd Turn-around is also one-way. O'Connor House Drive, Campanile Road, and Alumni Drive are two-way, and parking may be permitted only where marked.
- Motorized vehicles must use the roadway. Bikes and carts should ride only where indicated on the bike/cart route map. Skates and Skateboards are to travel in direction of traffic flow and must yield to pedestrians and vehicles.
- Pedestrians have right of way at all crosswalks.
- Parking violations must be resolved within 7 calendar days from the date of the issuance to avoid a $5 late fee or the loss to appeal.
- First citations will be reduced to a warning.
- Overnight parking in visitor parking lots is not allowed without permission.
